Introducing Amberley House

Located in Stoke-on-Trent, Amberley House offers a supportive, homely and companionable environment, with individualised bedrooms and a range of spacious communal areas.

Each resident has a named nurse, a key worker and a comprehensive package tailored to meet their individual care and social needs.

A more attractive environment

Amberley House is conveniently situated in the residential area of Bentilee in Stoke-on-Trent. The home provides residents with extensive communal space, including a choice of two lounges. There is also a tranquil, fully enclosed garden, which offers a relaxing atmosphere and a quiet retreat.

Introducing our new Home Manager

I am delighted to be the new Home Manager here at Amberley House. I have previously trained as a nurse at St Thomas' Hospital in London and qualified as an RGN in 1992. I have spent the majority of my career working in care homes which specialise in supporting older people. This includes managing care homes since 2008, having previously been a deputy manager for 12 years. I am passionate about the quality of care that our residents receive and ensuring that their families and our staff always feel supported.

I hope that you enjoy reading our brochure and I look forward to speaking with you in the near future.
