

Ogilvie Court

Located in Colchester, Ogilvie Court provides specialist residential support for adults with a range of needs.

Introducing Ogilvie Court

At Ogilvie Court, we provide leading person-centred support for men and women over the age of 18 living with autism, learning disabilities, Prader-Willi Syndrome (PWS) and behaviours that challenge.

We offer 24/7 specialist residential care in a community setting. Our aim is to deliver an increasing sense of self-management and empowerment that will lead to more independent living.

Living at Ogilvie Court

Set in four acres of private gardens and woodlands, Ogilvie Court is situated in a peaceful, rural location near to the village of Earls Colne, which has easy access to local shops and amenities. We provide opportunities for residents to participate in a wide variety of community-based activities including college courses and social engagement.

The service provides:

- 25 bedrooms within 4 houses
- Communal areas within each house, including a lounge, kitchen and secure gardens
- 4 acres of private land including woodlands and nature trail
- A multidisciplinary staff team providing continuous support
- Access to education opportunities
- Activity resource centre
- Horticultural and training centre
- Sensory rooms
- Vegetable plots
- Vehicles to access wider community facilities

Our team of experts

Our Ogilvie Court services employ and use a comprehensive and highly skilled team, who are experienced in managing individuals with a wide range of conditions.

We also work closely with local community teams including GPs, chiropodists and dietitians.

Leisure activities

We have a daily activities programme based on individual interests and abilities. People decide what they want to do based on their person-centred plan, as well as through the discovery of further hobbies and activities, which include:

- Arts and crafts
- Bowling
- Cinema
- Dance and drama classes
- Farming
- Football
- Golf
- Gym
- Local discos
- Shopping
- Swimming
- Walking

Independence skills

Ogilvie Court has its own resource and horticultural centres, which are specifically designed to provide a range of daily activities to help an individual develop their independence and social skills. With the support of our expert staff and by using step-by-step programmes, these skills include:

- Budgeting
- Cleaning
- Communication skills
- Cooking
- Food shopping
- Gardening
- Healthy eating
- Laundry
- Maintaining their own houses
- Pottery

Our residents can also access local college courses to further develop their independence and social skills including:

- Arts and crafts
- Dancing
- Food hygiene
- Health and safety
- IT
- Literacy
- Music
