

Cragston Court

Located in Blakelaw, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Cragston Court is a specialist nurse-led residential rehabilitation and recovery service for adults with enduring mental health needs.

Introducing Cragston Court

Cragston Court is a 20-bedded residential care home with nursing capabilities. Our focus and therapies are aimed on improving outcomes and the quality of life for our residents. Our bespoke treatment approach looks at what can be achieved for each individual by focusing on their abilities, interests and needs. The range of facilities available at Cragston Court includes:

- Each bedroom has an en-suite bathroom
- 5 bedrooms are also fully equipped with domestic kitchens, french doors, and a patio that leads to an enclosed garden
- 2 lounges, including a lounge for recreational use, which includes cooking facilities to encourage and enable independence within people's recovery

Resident profile

Cragston Court is suitable for residents that fit the following profile:

- Men and women aged 18 years and over
- Individuals with enduring mental health needs

Residents are normally referred to us following a number of re-admissions, or from placements where they haven't made a sustained recovery.

Our multidisciplinary team

Our team work together to help build our residents' confidence and skills with the aim of, where appropriate, re-joining the community.

Our multidisciplinary team includes:

- A registered manager
- Clinical lead
- Registered mental health nurses
- Recovery workers

An environment supporting recovery

We foster a positive environment to increase our residents' confidence, bringing inclusion, structure and routine to their lives, as well as the opportunity to have close links with the local community through access to:

- High Street shopping
- Bus routes
- Local colleges
- Local library
- Post office
- Gym and swimming pool
- Restaurants

We also support people in our care with intensive care needs by providing them access to 24-hour nursing care, led by our registered mental health nursing team.
