

Supported living services in North Yorkshire

Priory Supported Living North Yorkshire supports adults with learning disabilities, autism, mental health needs and those who may present with behaviours that challenge, to live the lives that they choose.

About us

At Priory Supported Living North Yorkshire, we deliver specialist, person-centred support that enables people to lead happy and fulfilling lives, living independently and safely in their own homes, within the community.

We work in a person-centred way, which means that our support and care is completely bespoke and perfectly matched to the unique needs, preferences and aspirations of each individual. The level of support provided can range from a couple of hours per week to 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

The service offers specialist support to empower and encourage individuals to develop their self-esteem and the skills they need, working towards a level of independence which is in-line with their skills, confidence and aspirations.

Priory Supported Living North Yorkshire has established partnerships with a number of local housing providers. This enables us to offer a range of accommodation options to meet varying needs, including self-contained flats, shared living and completely bespoke solutions, with accommodation adapted to meet individual needs. Some of our properties also have assistive technology integrated, to maximise our residents' independence.
