

Supported living services in Scotland

Priory Supported Living Scotland supports people with learning disabilities, autism, mental health needs and behaviours that may challenge, to live the lives that they choose.

About us

We deliver specialist, person-centred support that enables people to lead happy and fulfilling lives, living independently and safely in their own homes, within the community.

Our support and care is completely bespoke and perfectly matched to the unique needs, preferences and aspirations of each individual. The levels of support provided can range from a couple of hours per week to 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

As we also have a range of specialist residential services in the local area, Priory Supported Living Scotland can provide unique care pathways. We offer step-up and step-down services, with continuity of staff and care.

Achieving positive outcomes

Priory Supported Living Scotland empowers people to achieve the best possible outcomes by giving them greater choice and control over how they live their lives. We encourage each individual to reach their potential by delivering specialist person-centred support that enables them to lead a life that is more enriching and fulfilling.

We are proud that the people that we support achieve greater independence, find employment and fully integrate into their communities. Our services deliver measurable results for both Local Authorities and the people we support. Working together, we make a real and lasting difference.

Referrals and placements

Referrals may be made through:

- The individual's social services department management team or, if relevant, their local health authority
- By the individual (or an appropriate adult acting on their behalf), who wishes to use direct payment or individual budget, or who is self-financing
